

Rikudo – Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes how Rikudo SASU (referred to in this Privacy Policy as “we,” “us,” or “our”), as the developer of the Rikudo mobile application (the “App”) available for download in the Google Play Store collects information when you visit the App. It also explains how we use and disclose the information we collect from you, and your rights in relation to that information.

By accessing, visiting or using the App, you expressly consent to our collection, storage, use and disclosure of your information as described in this Privacy Policy.

Please note that if you disagree with anything in this Privacy Policy, you must not use the App.

What Information is Collected through the App?

We use technologies like cookies (small files stored by your browser), web beacons, or unique device identifiers to anonymously identify your device so we can deliver a better experience.

Information Automatically Collected Through the App.

We automatically collect information about you when you use the App. If you access the App through a mobile device, we may be able to identify the general location of your mobile device. We will collect information including, but not limited to: your mobile device’s brand, model, operating system, resolution, screen size, system version, Bluetooth settings, internet connection, RAM, mobile device’s Android Advertising ID, along with your account activation time, content displayed to you and whether you clicked on it, advertisements displayed to you and whether you clicked on them, URLs you have visited, notifications that have appeared on your mobile device, your IP address, your mobile country code.

Information Collected by Third Parties through Third Party Links and Content.

The App may include links to other websites and other content from third party businesses. We do not have access to or control over the technology that these third parties may use. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third parties or the content on any third party website. You are encouraged to review the privacy policies of the different websites you visit and of the advertisers whose ads you may choose to click while on our App.

Information Collected by Third Party Analytics Services.

We may work with third party analytics services to help us understand how the App is being used, such as tracking the frequency and duration of use of the App. These services may collect information about the content you view, what websites you visit immediately prior to and after visiting the App, and your system information and geographic information. The information generated about your use of the App will be transmitted to and stored by the applicable analytics services.

Information You Share on Third Party Websites or through Social Media.

The App may include links to third party websites and social media services where you will be able to make in app purchases, post comments, stories, reviews or other information. Your use of these third party websites and social media services may result in the collection or sharing of information about you by these third party websites and social media services. We encourage you to review the privacy policies and settings on the third party websites and social media services with which you interact to make sure you understand the information that may be collected, used, and shared by those third party websites and social media services.

How We Use the Information We Collect?

We use the information we gather through the App to help us better understand how the App is being used. By identifying patterns and trends in usage, we are able to better design the App to improve your experience. We may also use this information for commercial and marketing purposes, as described below.

We aim to serve you ads that reflect your interest. We and third party businesses may use the information collected through the App using cookies, web beacons, and other similar technologies to help manage online advertising programs. This information may enable us, as well as third-party advertising Apps and other third-party businesses, to track the actions of users online over time and across different web sites or platforms to measure statistics relating to marketing efforts, and to deliver electronic advertisements that may be more relevant to individual consumers. Ad companies may use and collect anonymous data about your interests to customize content and advertising here and in other sites and applications. Interest and location data may be linked to your device, but is not linked to your identity. Click to see company privacy policies and opt-out choices:

Analytics companies may access anonymous data (such as your IP address or device ID) to help us understand how our services are used. They use this data solely on our behalf. They do not share it except in aggregate form; no data is shared as to any individual user.

To operate the service, we also may make identifiable and anonymous information available to third parties in these limited circumstances: (1) with your express consent, (2) when we have a good faith belief it is required by law, (3) when we have a good faith belief it is necessary to protect our rights or property, or (4) to any successor or purchaser in a merger, acquisition, liquidation, dissolution or sale of assets.

What rights do you have?

You have the right, at any time, to know whether your Personal Data (any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual) has been stored and you can consult us to learn about its contents and origin, to verify its accuracy or to ask for it to be supplemented, cancelled, updated or corrected, or for its transformation into anonymous format or to block any data held in violation of the law, as well as to oppose its treatment for any and all legitimate reasons. Requests should be sent to us at the contact information set out below.

This App does not support “Do Not Track” requests. To determine whether any of the third party services it uses honor the “Do Not Track” requests, please read their privacy policies.
